Second Lieutenant Ramon L. Hall, 105th infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action east of Ronsoy, France, September 29, 1918. During the operations against the Hindenburg line, Lieutenant Hall left shelter, went forward under heavy shell and machine gun fire and succeeded in bringing back to our lines a wounded soldier. His splendid courage and gallant conduct furnished a fine example to his command. Home address: Mrs. A. H. Duane, mother, Echo Long, Ballston Lake.

Second Lieutenant Hall is the son of Mrs. Edith Hall Duane, who lives at 40 Glenwood boulevard, Schenectady. He was born in Wilkesbarre and will be twenty-eight years old tomorrow. He attended the public schools in Wilkesbarre and is a graduate of the high school in that city. About eleven years ago he came to Schenectady and obtained a position in the advertising department of the Schenectady Gazette. When he enlisted he was advertising manager.

Lieutenant Hall enlisted in "F" company of the Second infantry, New York National Guard, in March, 1916, and served with that unit on the Mexican border. Soon after his company reached Spartanburg, Lieutenant Hall entered an officers' training school. On May 15, 1918, he was commissioned a second lieutenant and attached to "L" company, 105th infantry, with which unit he is now serving.

Lieutenant Hall is a member of the Edison club of Schenectady and is an active Mason. He is an all around athlete and was active in Young Men's Christian Association athletic affairs.

Mrs. Duane said she was proud of her son, the first Schenectady man to be officially cited for bravery in action. Sunday she received a small package from her son in which he enclosed a buckle from a German belt, with "Gott Mit Uns" on the brass part, a German bullet, and a button from a German officer's overcoat.

Private Sylvester J. Howland, "B" company 105th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action east of Ronssoy, France, September 29, 1918. During the operations against the Hindenburg line, Private Howland left shelter and went forward under heavy shell and machine gun fire and succeeded in rescuing a wounded soldier, thereby displaying great bravery and gallantry. In performing this act, he was wounded. Home address: Mrs. Sarah Howland, mother, 56 Fourth street, Waterford.

Private Howland is the son of Mrs. Sarah Howland of 56 Fourth street, Waterford. He was educated in the public schools of Waterford and prior to his enlistment was employed at the Ford mills. He enlisted in June, 1917, and received his military training at Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg. He sailed for France from Newport News, Virginia and arrived overseas on Decoration day. He is in an English hospital recovering from wounds.

His first letter, written upon his arrival in the hospital, says: "Another fellow and I were helping a wounded man in. We found him in a shell hole and we were carrying him to safety when a sniper spotted us and shot us both. But we gave the Germans an awful lacing."

Two Cohoes Men Die in Service.
 The death of John Johnston of Cohoes, 105th infantry, died of pneumonia in a base hospital in France November 5, following an attack of influenza. The letter was written by the nurse attending him. He had just been promoted to sergeant. His parents, two sisters, Mrs. Warren W. Brower and Mrs. Lillian Miller, and a brother, Joseph Johnston, Jr, survive. Before enlisting he was employed as a machinist by the Albany Car Heating Company and the Cohoes Car Heating Company. He was serving in the 105th infantry.

By direction of the President, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 9, 1918 and the Act of Congress approved May 26, 1928, a Distinguished Service Cross was awarded by the War Department with the following citation:

"For extraordinary heroism in action at Arbre-Guernon, France, October 17, 1918. During the advance of his Company into the town, Private Keene, with utter disregard of his own personal danger, pursued several of the enemy into a house, and, single-handed, captured ten of them as they were in the act of setting up a machine gun. On the following morning, October 18, 1918, near the town of Mazingheim, when the advance of the battalion had been temporarily halted by heavy enemy fire, Private Keene, voluntarily carried a message for reinforcements to Battalion Headquarters through intense shell and machine-gun fire and returned with the necessary reinforcements, thereby enabling the battalion to continue its advance."
